HOW TO PACK AND SHIP FURS FOR BEST RESULTS

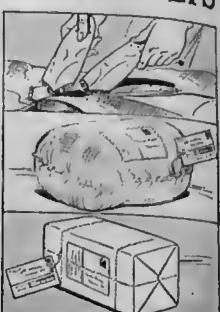

he aims for specify delivery, which means quicker returns. Follow these suggestions for best results:

See that all the heavy gream and surplus fat have been removed troin pelts so they won't spoil while enroute, either in warm weather or in warm express or postal rooms

In packing, it is best wherever possible to place skins flat, one on lop of another. Never slip one pelt inside of another; the one inside may be overlooked. Don't let gresse or skin-side of pelt come in contact with fur-side of

Ship furs in burlap or cloth wrapping, or in box with a few holes punched in sides to allow ventilation, which helps prevent spoilage. Never wrap green furain paper. It prevents circulation of air and is likely to make them spoil. Do not ship furs in air-tight containers. Follow the illustrations in shipping

-always straching to your bundle any instructions regarding your shipment. Insert them in a sealed envelope carrying first-class postage. Sew or glue envelope to the outside of the package. This applies either to express or parcel post ipping. Make certain your name and address appear on the thipment. Ship by Expressor Insured Parcel Post.

Christmas Message

By REV. WILMER CRUMMETT

Pastor of the Pocahontas Mission Church of the Brethren

Bethlehem of Juden had become a crewded place, for people from far and near had come to pay their taxes. The sun had gone down behind yonder bill and Bethlehem was covered with a blanket of darkness. In the stillness of this night there sounded a message that echoed and re-echoed in the ears of all Judea. It was the sound of Angela' voices as they proclaimed the first Christmas Proclamation: "FEAR NOT: FOR BEHOLD, I BRENG YOU GOOD TIDINGS of GREAT JOY. WHICH SHALL BE TO ALL PEO. PLE. FOR UNTO YOU IS BORN THIS DAY, IN THE CITY OF DAVID A SAVIOUR, WHICH IS CHRIST THE LORD." St. Luke 2:10, 11.

This message came at a time when men's souls were being tried. People who were made slaves by Herod's conquests were commanded to pay taxes that his means of power might be increased. Little people, there were, upon whose faces were written deer Country's Service the lines of hard work and anxiety They were people of no importance to those who held the reins of government only as they worked and slaved for the good of the king.

This Christmas is dawning upon a Army-Richard N. Sheets, Oliver H world that is clothed in darkness and Tracy, Francis W. Hook, Argile C. confronted on every side by poverty Arbogast, Harlan R. Grimes. and suffering. Many are those who i are separated from the care and F. Baxter, Walter Paris Goode, keeping of loved ones. There are milllons of hungry and starving people, millions that are dead and millions hat are maimed.

Dark would be the picture but above the noise of bursting shells, and the cries of the distressed, sounds clear the same angelic voices proclaiming navy and marine corps were given anew the first Christmas Proclama. Iransportation and ordered to report,

Floyd H. Viers, adjulant of Pocahontas Post, No. 50, of the American Le-

American Legion.

Dear Sita: Ha ing received your cigarettes, we send our deepest appreciation. We enjoyed them very much and take this time to thank you. It is really quite nice to know that someone thinks enough to aend us fellows in the service such things as you have.

I'm sure you know how much it means when you're a long way from home to find that the people back home care enough to donate to such funds to help us along

We can all be proud enough to say that we have the finest and best equipped armed forces in the world. Men who used to be your neighbors, men from every part of the nation, doing their job-the most important job they will ever have and it must be dute and it. will be done.

By chance we have a young man aboard our ship from "Cass, West Virginia." and be tells us that Marinton is but 20 or 40 miles frum, his home town. I wish you could have heard him take of his home. From what we gather from him we are sure West Virginia

If you can find time, please write to us, as we enjoy mail from any one person or organizationes such as yours.

Well, as you know at times we are pretty husy around here so we will close for this time. Expecting to hear from you sometime in the future, we remain,

"ANOTHER GUN CREW."

The Babe of Bethlehem

Ships tes' Prill ': est of the least temp. Per I li-m not was a tirtide de trict. The were many small hills and valleys to some places orchard and ame. had been planted in the past, perhaps when David had we tell d and fed his sheep. There were flocks of sheep about this country and the shepherds who tended them were gentle and land They never drove them, just led the way and the sheep fellowed. A shepherd would always stay with his flock, even through the coldest nights, protecting them from wolves and wild animals and watching that they did not go astray.

At that time bittle lambs were brought to the church on special holy days, to give to God. The people brought the best lambs in the flock, because they were for God. The shepherds who raised the church lambs were always good mea; men who loved God. During the night, when the flocks would be sleeping in the fields, the shepherds would talk together and tell storles. They knew the mysteries of the sky, where stars large and small blinked over their heads and lighted the way until morning brought the sun. They loved the bie, out in the open, under the blanket of the blue sky, where they could hear Nature breathing freely; out there in the fields with the stars, the dew and the perfume.

As they watched their fleeks they sang the Shepherd's Fsalm, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," for they were mea of faith, humble men, dressed in coarse clothes, with big crooks in their hands. They talked of the King of Glory, who would come on earth some time. Surely the King would come to fulfill the promise! Had act the prophet Micah told them in the Bible that the Ruler would spring from Bethlehem! And thus they iniked, wondering if the Saviour would really come to their humble little town; and if they, just poor shepherds, would see the King of Glory for whom all the people had been watching.

One night the fields were white with frost. The sheep were asleep and little wooly lamblins were snuggled in their mothers' fleecy coats. A hush had settled over the flock, broken only by the voices of shepherds, talking and medltating, as was their way. Suddealy a woadrons light came out of the heavens. Glariously it beamed down upon them. At that moment an Angel of the Lord appeared.

The shepherds fell upon their knees and bowed their heads, for they were afraid. Then the angel said, "Fear not: for, behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in Bethlehem, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the Babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger."

Then the sky became brighter still, as if the gates of heaven had opened wide. Many many angels came in their ever-glorious flight, heralding the birth of the Babe with their joyous music, singing the hyma which the world has ever loved: "Glory to God in the Highest, and on Earth Peace, Good Will Toward Men." To all manklad they were telling the story of their glad tidings: "He that shall iend His flock is born." The angels sang of the glory of the Saviour-King and of the star that God and placed above the manger la the east.

Slowly the great light faded away and the volces of angels became hushed in the quiet of the night. For a moment the shepherds canld not speak. They still felt the presence of that great henvenly host, which had disappeared into the blue of the sky. Then as if awakened to an intense joy, they cried out to one another, "The King has come! Let us go at once to Bethichem." And away they eagerly harried over the frosty robit, their sheep, now all awakened, followed them, in great haste they arrived in Bethlehem. There they found the little Child, with Mary and Joseph, in an old atable where they had taken shalter. The Christ Child, whom confe was a meager, lay on the iny warmed by the breath of rown and denkeys. He was wrapped in soft pieces of cloth called awardding ciother, which Mary, His mether, had pul on litts. The was the sign the Amal of the Lord had given 1 . H. Ampherd, to they knew the with the Kin.

The liptority fell men their kneed in the stable and werhip to the fulls thish in the mapper, who had come with the world to make every body good and happy. The Shepherd of all March of languages of agent

"Certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness"

The First of These is

NE THING distinguishes American lives can be spent in battle and condemocracy most sharply from other forms of government-and that is its regard for human life.

Remember the historic dash to Nome, in 1925, with life-giving serum when death stalked in that far community?

Remember the Squalus-and the almost superhuman efforts made to save the lives of the 33 men trapped in her sunken hull hundreds of feet below the surface?

Remember the items about iron lungs rushed to infantile paralysis victims who could not breathe without them?

Think of the mercy ships of the last war, loaded to the gunwales with food for starving Belgians and Armeniansthe medical supplies and other equipment shipped to the Japanese when the horror of earthquake struck in 1923the development of blood plusma, penicillin and other ways and means of saving and prolonging human life.

Then think of nations where to take one's life by hard-kard is a maximal honor. Nations where bitths ate encoveraged only so that more and more quest. Nations where those unpopular in government are removed not by ballots but by bullets.

Do you begin to see the one great difference between American democracy and other forms of government?

In the midst of war, one of the great railroads of this country has been awarded the E. H. Harriman Memorial Gold Medal "for outstanding accomplishment in railroad safety."

That railroad has been honored, mind you, not just because it has hauled millions of tons of coal and other materials to keep the war production program rolling - but because "with the greatest number of passengers carried since 1928, the Chesapeake and Ohio in 1942 attained the lowest passenger casualty rate in its history. It has not had a passenger fatality in a train accident in over 27 years, carrying 115,350,000 passengers with a passenger mileage of more than 6,750,000,000,"

It has been honored, not just because it has speeded to waiting ships the things of war for trans-shipment to the battle fronts-but because "the Chesapeake and Ohio shows a reduction in total employee casualty rate of 70 per cent for the past 5 years as compared to the 5 years, 1921 to 1926 inclusive, and it is one of the very few railroads which were able to reduce their employee casualty rate in 1942 far below that of 1941, with a steady, continued, year-by-year reduction since 1936."

In accepting the Harriman Medal, the Chesapeake and Ohio recognizes in the very existence of such an award the one thing above all others worth fighting for-the sanctity and dignity of human life-which, as history has repeatedly shown, exist only so long as government is in the hands of the people and not people in the hands of government.

"NO PASSENGER FATALITY IN A TRAIN ACCIDENT IN MORE THAN 27 YEARS."

The Edward H. Harrisson Memorial Medal, annueded arountly to the railroad with the outstanding safety recordawarded on June 24, 1943, to the Cheraprake and Ohio Railway Company in Precognition of its outstanding safety second for the year 1942 among Class I Kailroads operating ten million or more locometive railes?"
